Promised Theater Attractions

Belasco—"Jack and the Beanstalk."
The unusual attraction at the Belasco Theater this week is William Fox's picturization of the famous fairy tale, "Jack and the Beanstalk." This photoplay, with its thirteen hundred scenes, headed by Virginia Lee Corbin and Francis Carpenter, who plays the cruel giant and rescues the beautiful princess, is delighting large audiences twice daily. Jack's adventures up to the time he cuts down the beanstalk and thereby putting an end to the giant is looked upon with awe by the children—to the grown-ups the story is vastly amusing and takes them back to the time they were children and dwell in the enchanted land of the fairies. "Jack and the Beanstalk" remains at the Belasco Theater the entire week including Sunday afternoon and night.

Belasco—"Experience."
George V. Hobart's "Experience," the modern morality play, which has been the sensation of the theatrical world for three seasons, will play a return engagement at the Belasco Theater next week. Despite the fact that this play remained here for two weeks last season playing to capacity houses, the advance sale of the coming week promises standing room business. "Experience" is a portrayal of the entire gamut of human emotions, from the roseate dreams of youth down through pleasure, disillusion and despair, and finally concluding with the inspiration of hope renewed by experience. The principal role of Youth, while William Ingersoll plays the title role and follows Youth everywhere, always advising him impartially and truthfully, but ever unheeded. The other characters represent Love, Hope, Ambition, Pleasure, Passion, Intoxication, Poverty, Work, Despair and others. Others in the cast include Margot Williams, Marie Horne, Dorothy Newell, Frazier Coulter, Billy Betts, George T. Meach, Jane Elliott, Albert Boyd, Doris Fredo, Marie Hall, Jean Downs and Mrs. Marion Holcombe. "Experience" is being produced under the direction of Messrs. Elliott, Comstock and Gail, and under the personal direction of the author, George V. Hobart.

National—"Rambler Rose."
There will be another brand new show at the National Theater next week. A musical show this time—"Rambler Rose," the annual Charles Frohman musical comedy production, with these national favorites, Julie Sanderson and Joseph Cawthon, as the stars. The piece, which is said to tell a diverting story and to be full of tuneful melodies, is the work of George H. Brown, Fred F. Frazar and Harry B. Smith. There is an unusually big supporting company, the principals including Ada Meade, Kate Seargenton, Gladys Siddons, Ethel Boyd, Doris Fredo, Wilma Walton, Thomas Conkey, Stewart Baird, George E. Mack and W. H. Bentley. As for the chorus, it goes without saying that it is numerous and pretty and lively. The stage settings and the costumes are remarkably lavish even for a Charles Frohman production. The sale of seats begins at the box office on Thursday morning.

Poll—"Peg O' My Heart."
"Peg O' My Heart," J. Hartley Manners' delightful comedy of English country life, will be the opening attraction at Poll's Theater, beginning next Sunday evening September 3. Laughter and tears are so close together in this delightful story of youth that one can scarcely discern the boundary line. There has never been a character just exactly like "Peg." She is a winsome, sunny, lovable, and a veritable spitfire when aroused. Robert Campbell is sending Ann Pittwood here in the role of "Peg," supported by an excellent company.

B. F. Keith's—Vaudeville.
Next week, beginning with Labor Day, when there will be three performances—2:15, 4:15 and 7:15 p. m.—the holiday bill will be headed by the famous dancer, Joan Sawyer, assisted by George Hackett and her own orchestra. Miss Sawyer will present her latest repertoire of ballroom and society dances.

Cecil Cunningham, who won stellar honors in one of the shortest periods in record in Broadway, is another extraordinary feature. Harry Green and Company will be seen in "The Cherry Tree," in which he comedian faces in his effort to mislead the example of the illustrious American, Frank Stafford and Com-

Gordon, Rose De Mar and Grace Fremont and also a chic all-Washington "pony chorus." It is equipped with handsome costumes and scenery and Mr. Rykowski promises the story will be found interesting, the music very pretty and at times inspiring and the comedy clean and laughable. The bill will also present a special added attraction in the burlesque comedian, Andy Walker, assisted by Frankie James and Archie Lloyd, in a hodge podge of songs and merriment that make a perfect blend of better burlesque and vaudeville; the Stetel Trio, musical artists of the first rank from higher vaudeville; the Howard Sisters in a song repertoire, with unusually handsome costumes and scenery; Nelson and Castle, in a musical comedy offering and the Three Alex. in something entirely new in the way of athletics.

Antonio Moreno will be the picture star in the big photoplay, "The Right of Possession." "A clever dummy" will be the Keystone laughmaker and the Hearst Pathe News pictorial will complete the bill.

Moore's Strand—"On Trial."
"On Trial," a picturization of the noted play, and the initial production of the recently-organized First National Exhibitors' Circuit, and featuring such well-known film stars as Sydney Ainsworth, Barbara Castle, James Young and Corinne Uzzell, will be the stellar attraction at Moore's Strand Theater from next Sunday to Thursday, inclusive. The plot of the drama is known to the theatergoers and concerns the trial of a young husband accused of murdering a millionaire. On Friday and Saturday the screen's most winsome star, Beatie Barricade, will be featured in a romantic comedy-drama entitled, "Borrowed Plumes." It depicts the adventures of a madcap little slavey who dons the plumage of her mistress and boldly invades the realm of society. Other first-run pictures will be shown daily and special musical accompaniments will be rendered by the Strand Symphony Orchestra.

Cheapeake Beach.
The largest crowds of the season visited Cheapeake Beach during the past week. This was no doubt due to the good weather, which at this season is the most delightful of the year. The prevailing breezes being from the southeast made the beach walks a particularly enjoyable spot to forget the heat of the city. The Breakaway Barlows give a free show each afternoon and evening, consisting of their comedy act. It is both thrilling and amusing and has proven a prime favorite with the patrons of this resort. Owing to the unfavorable weather conditions in the first part of July, the management has decided to keep Cheapeake Beach open until Sunday, September 18, which will no doubt prove welcome to many Washingtonians who make the beach several times each week. During the past week phenomenal catches of crabs and fish have been made, which adds greatly to the pleasure of the trip.

Casino—"Purity."
At the Casino Theater next week there will be revealed for the first time in Washington the film visualization of what has been described as the epitome of an artistic series of dances. Staged in a wood-bordered lawn, running down to the water, the screen that approaches it in point of naturalness, and since Miss Munson was guided by the most adroit directors in giving to the camera her expressions of artistic thought, little is left to imagination. A very large company of dancers was employed in support of Miss Munson, and "Purity," the title which has been given to the production, is likely to establish new box office records for the new management of the Casino. "Twilight Sleep" continues during this week.

Glen Echo Park.
Labor Day will be observed as usual with Glen Echo Park, a number of free features having been arranged for the thousands of pleasure-seekers expected to spend a part of the holiday at the popular resort. All of the day of regular amusements of the park that include the two thrill rides, the midway, carousel, Japanese ball games, Jake's various emporiums and other attractions are on the daily program. One of the most popular piece orchestra, is one of the popular pastimes of the evening crowds. Sunday visitors will have another opportunity this week to hear Sol Minstrel's own band, the organization that earlier in the season met with so enthusiastic a reception. This, like the daily motion pictures, is free.

ALEXANDRIA COUNCIL MAY AND FERRY LINE

Steel Company Submits Offer to City to Operate Boat

THE HERALD BUREAU, 403 King Street.

Alexandria, Va., Aug. 29.—The proposal submitted to the city council tonight by the Washington Steel and Ordnance Company, through William Dalton, general manager, having for its object the establishment of a ferry between this city and the company's plant on the opposite side of the river at Giesboro Point, under certain conditions for the employment of the proposed to make their homes here, was reported on favorably by the city council at a joint session held tonight.

This action was taken by the council after hearing the matter explained by E. A. Lyett, employment manager of that company, who stated that his company has on its payroll 2,395 men; that its annual payroll is $2,500,000 and there are at present seven Alexandrians employed at the plant. The pay is $45,000 annually in wages. Homes, he said, are asked here for these men. His company, he said, wants to be able to employ the men at the operation expenses for a year or approximately $500 a month, for a period of one year, and nothing is to be paid until 200 men employed at the plant are established in this city. The operating expenses of the boat are to be $80 a day, according to Mr. Lyett.

The meeting was presided over by F. J. Marbury, president of the board of aldermen, and members of the council and seven members of the board of aldermen were present, together with a large gathering of representative business men. President Marbury explained the company desires this city to pay $500 a month toward the operation expenses of the ferry after 200 employees are brought to Alexandria to live. President Marbury also outlined the proposition, saying that after 500 men are established in homes here nothing is paid by the city as the ferry then will be self-sustaining. The department of Labor, he stated also, was behind the movement. Before council took action on the matter a committee composed of H. W. Smith, George W. Ballenger, the common council, and W. W. Ballenger, from the board of aldermen, was appointed to draft a resolution and they reported favorably on the measure.

After their report had been adopted, which report recommended that three members of common council and two members of the board of aldermen be appointed to draft the necessary resolutions on the matter, a committee composed of Aldermen Ballenger and Wilkins and Councilmen Howard Smith, Lawler and Bailey was named. This committee will make its report to President Marbury, of the board of aldermen, and first a meeting of the aldermen will be called and the matter acted on and three days thereafter common council will act on the measure.

Editorial

A few years ago a friend of ours—a research chemist—spent two years trying to take the "kick" out of cottonseed meal so that it could be fed to pigs without killing them. The meal formerly had gone to waste.

Today cottonseed oil—an extract from the meal—is so greatly in demand that chemists are looking for a substitute in order that some of our biggest manufacturing plants for food-stuffs may go on.

What a change a few years will make. Yesterday a drug on the market, today the supply less than the demand.

Most of us do not realize how fast this old world moves, because we do not have time to sit down and look backward.

Often we can hardly realize that this big store has grown from nothing in a little over fifty years. It's marvelous.
